

THINK FORWARD

Intellectual Property Law Firm Brinks Gilson & Lione Elects Jason Schigelone as Counsel

January 05, 2015

CHICAGO—Brinks Gilson & Lione, one of the nation's largest intellectual property law firms, has elected attorney Jason W. Schigelone as counsel, effective January 2015.

Mr. Schigelone specializes in patent prosecution and litigation in a range of technical areas, with an emphasis on patents in the chemical, medical, and mechanical arts. He has represented global clients in numerous patent infringement matters including Hatch-Waxman cases, and has deep experience in litigation relating to cardiovascular and interventional medical device patents.

Prior to becoming an attorney, Mr. Schigelone worked for a decade in the automotive industry, including at Ford Motor Co. from 1994 to 2000, and as a patent engineer for original equipment manufacturer Visteon Corp., from 2003 to 2005. He holds B.S. and M.S. degrees in chemical engineering from the University of Michigan; he earned his J.D. at Wayne State University Law School.

Brinks Gilson & Lione

The attorneys, scientific advisors and patent agents at Brinks Gilson & Lione practice exclusively in the field of intellectual property, making Brinks one of the largest intellectual property law firms in the U.S. Clients around the world use Brinks to help them protect and enforce their intellectual property rights. Brinks lawyers provide counseling in all aspects of patent, trademark, unfair competition, trade secret and copyright law. More information is at www.brinksgilson.com.